TAPA UPDATE

Texas Alliance of Paralegal Associations ("TAPA") was formed in 1982 by representatives of local paralegal associations throughout the state of Texas who joined together to exchange ideas regarding the development of the paralegal profession. This annual conference is a much anticipated event that continues to inspire and encourage paralegals. This was DCPA's first time to host TAPA which was held at the Courtyard Marriott in Denton. There was a leadership seminar on Friday, April 10th with three very talented and inspiring speakers: Dianne Costa, Allen Mihecoby and Bobbie Mitchell. The evening started with a scavenger hunt around the historic downtown Courthouse Square followed by dinner at LSA Burgers and dessert at Beth Marie's Old Fashioned Ice Cream. Saturday, April 11th was the leadership conference where delegates met to promote professional growth and development. See pictures from the event on pages 9 - 12.

President's Message

By: Cheryl Cooper

It's April, folks. Where, oh where, has the year gone so far? Hopefully, all of you had a wonderful Easter holiday and some of you got to visit the Dallas Arboretum's Texas Blooms festival.

I hope you were able to make our March luncheon. Our CLE Chair, Michelle Beecher, arranged for newly elected Denton County Clerk, Juli Luke, and members of her staff to come speak to us. Ms. Luke brought historical pieces for viewing and presented a wonderful Power Point presentation. She provided some historical background on Denton County records lost years ago due to multiple fires allegedly set by an infamous Dentonite, generally believed as an effort to destroy criminal records and evidence related to himself and his cronies. Ms. Luke agreed to provide us with her impressive Power Point presentation so we could upload it to our website for our members' use. Please take a minute to peruse her Power Point. It is a handy reference guide for the Denton County Clerk's office since Ms. Luke instituted some new and innovative changes, effective January 1st.

This month, for our April 23rd CLE luncheon, Michelle Beecher has arranged for Attorney Brian Cartwright to come speak to us about Ethics for the Attorney and Paralegal. I'm sure Michelle will have some valuable input to provide, in addition to what Mr. Cartwright presents. It promises to be valuable and interesting information that we can all benefit from. I would swear that some attorneys and judges have never even read the Texas Lawyer's Creed. I'm certain that if they did follow them, it would make all of our jobs easier. If you plan on attending the April 23rd CLE luncheon, please send me an email to: mlj@steelelawfirm.com and let me know if you plan on eating, or not. You can register and pay for the luncheon on our website too. Our website is www.dentonparalegals.org. The deadline to RSVP or register is April 17th so we can give Oakmont an accurate headcount. Due to the construction at Oakmont Country Club, we will be in the St. Andrew's Room located to the far left of where we have traditionally met in the past.

Several of you gave me some feedback about the food at last month's luncheon and I relayed your comments to the staff and chef. The chef was trying to do something new so we wouldn't always have the same ol', same ol' food. Please email me and let me know the type of food you like or have enjoyed in the past so I can relay that information to Oakmont. They really want to please us and keep our members/attendees happy. They are making some overall changes in their construction which will eventually include 2 entrees, a salad and soup bar, as well as their traditional sides, rolls, and dessert.

Heather Walker and her Social Committee planned a fun event at Brunswick Bowling Alley on March 19th. DCPA provided shoes and lanes for 2 hours. We have some talented members who can bowl, but regardless of how well we did or didn't bowl - it was a lot of fun. The member with the highest score was awarded 2 Cinemark movie passes. Be sure to check out our website for more information on upcoming Socials and events. Their Scavenger Hunt/Ice Cream Social is scheduled for Thursday, May 14th from 6-8 p. m.

I can report that our TAPA Leadership Seminar and Conference held here in Denton on April 10-11, 2015, at the Courtyard Marriott was a great success. The TAPA Committee did a great job preparing for, planning, and pulling off this event. Be sure to check out the photos on our Facebook page. #2015TAPA should bring up multiple posts and photos. Sunnie Palmer created a new Facebook group entitled, "Texas Alliance of Paralegal Associations" that has some additional photos and posts. We are in the process of preparing our final report on the TAPA event that will be presented to you at our June business meeting. As a recap, the Leadership Seminar on Friday hosted 3 speakers, Dianne Costa, Bobbie Mitchell, and Allen Mihecoby. Pam Snavelly was chiefly responsible for the seminar which went smoothly and garnered rave reviews. Allen Mihecoby, an outstanding paralegal friend to DCPA, presented a Power Point entitled, "Getting Plugged In; Powering Up the Paralegal Profession." It was motivating and inspiring. Allen has agreed to come speak to us sometime later this year and share his Power Point presentation. Sunnie Palmer was chiefly responsible for obtaining sponsors and exhibitors for the event. We were so pleased to have local, statewide, and other sponsorship to help offset costs for our event. We will post the vendor/sponsor page and other information on donors on our webpage. This information will also be outlined in our report. Lisa Pittman received, tracked, and processed all of the registrations for the event and served as Registrar at the actual event. Lisa and I worked together to insure our guests were provided with all the information and materials they needed for the event. Melody Brackeen was chiefly responsible for providing, preparing, and arranging the food for the event. Melody's friend, Claudette, is a chef and prepared an impressive array of food for our attendees. Pam Snavely and Kim Guertler prepared and orchestrated a Scavenger Hunt for attendees representing multiple associations around the state of Texas to Discover Denton at the historic downtown Denton Square. The attendees put their full effort into the activity. We had a lot of fun sharing photos and videos of their antics. Afterward, we ate at LSA Burger, Co. The weather, food, and music were great. We finished it off with treats at Beth Marie's Old Fashioned Ice Cream. On Saturday, each association presented their report to the group. My thanks to all of the above named ladies for donating their time and talents to make this event a success. I think DCPA has earned a positive reputation among other associations and state leaders as a result of 2015 TAPA.

Mother's Day will have already taken place before The Verdict is published again. We have many who are mothers and grandmothers. I sincerely hope you have a blessed day with your loved ones and that those who are fortunate enough to still have their mothers make them feel loved and appreciated on the special day set aside to honor them. Mother's Day is Sunday, May 10, 2015.

Happy Mother's Day!
